CALL FOR PAPERS

The Student Research Symposium started in the year 2011 as a satellite event to 7th edition of ICDCIT. The main objective of SRS is to encourage graduates, postgraduates & doctoral students to publish and present their research work.

The symposium will be held during 15th - 18th January 2016 in conjunction with 12th edition of ICDCIT, where student authors of the accepted papers (passed through a peer review process) will be invited to give a presentation on their research work before a group of peers as well as researchers who would offer a critique of each presentation and provide advice, and mentoring. Each student may also be invited to participate in a poster session. Submissions may either be a complete work or work in progress, with directions for future research.

Students Research Symposium solicits original research papers contributing to the foundations and applications in the area of Computer Science & Engineering and Information Technology.
